

Sir Mikael - Knight-errant

Sir Mikael, paragon of virtue! Thy travels take thee across the land, performing deeds of virtue and chivalry! Thy scorn is reserved for rakes, scoundrels, and overweighted armor plates. This hearty faire surely brings many opportunities for good!

Despite thine boisterous and cheery demeanor, thou art in search of things most solemn. Firstly, an opportunity: despite thy English upbringing, thine mother is quite thoroughly (unbeknownst outside the family) French. Thou dare not speak to most of such things, but if the opportunity presents itself, t'would be most just to assist the invaders in any way thou can—for thine mother's sake.

Furthermore, thine chivalric duties hide your true search—a few short years ago, when thou wert just on the verge of manhood, thine closest friend Amos was killed by a creditor—an infamous crime lord known only as The Mantis. Thy revenge was sworn on the spot, and thy travels have covered over thine purpose as thou sought the vicious criminal. Thy friends in high places can assure the arrest and execution, if thou can indict the person responsible.

This tragedy was layered on yet again just yesterday—another friend from the days of yore, Renton, successful in the Logger's Guild, was murdered in cold blood. Another indictment to be issued, another hard day—and search—in the life of Mikael.

Common Knowledge

- This popular Harvest Faire draws crowds for many miles, and it caters to those from every walk of life.
- The King's English army is camped nearby to defend Dunhurst. The attacking French are on the march, and should arrive next week!
- The popular Priestess Penelope was kidnapped yesterday. The Church hasn't paid the ransom of 100 gold pieces.
- A pagan Cult has been gaining popularity. The Church is displeased, and has been trying to root them out.

Street Knowledge

- Buyers and sellers of underground magical items identify each other by casually using the phrase "sword-shaped sheath"
- Buyers and sellers of documents with murky origins identify each other by casually using the phrase "delightedly devious dears"

Goals

- Indict the crime lord known as The Mantis
- Indict whoever killed Renton
- Help the French if the opportunity arises

- Loudly and publicly denounce something you won't stand for, to demonstrate your virtue
- Stay out of trouble

Sir Mikael
Secret	Despite keeping up external appearances, you are a French sympathizer.
Clue	Merchant Daniels is heavily involved in the Cult.