

Lordyn - Sorceress

Thou art Lordyn, weaver of miracles and wielder of magicks! Your many magical rings clink musically when then hands wave life essence into a recovering amputee, and your powerful voice rings out at the climax of the arcane ritual required by your demand to the heavens for rain.

...but that is just smoke among mirrors. In truth, you are an illusionist of great skill, but no wielder of true sorcery. Distractions, expertly crafted leading questions, and masterful slight-of-hand are enough to deceive untrained or unwary eyes.

Never to miss a lucrative misdirection, the recent disappearance of Priestess Penelope has presented an opportunity. You see ignorance is no excuse, and despite having no idea where Penelope is now, thou hast spread word of a ransom. No fool hast yet paid you, but you carry false papers with her forged signature—perhaps you can collect at the faire.

Thine silver tongue and razor mind have also earned you ownership of a large stake in the Logger's Guild. If you could obtain the logging rights to the nearby Wrinkled Forest, you could become extremely wealthy.

Lastly, thou hast always sought True Magic, and the opportunity may be near—rumors tell of a Magic Idol that may give you the command of witchcraft you crave. You must have it.
